

2020 Ridley Cohort

The Anglican Church in Tasmania has an agreement with Ridley Theological College to provide a Tasmanian Ridley Cohort to support Tasmanian Anglicans studying degree level theology online through Ridley (including 1 semester Grad. Cert & 1 year Grad. Dip.)

In 2020 there will be four visits from Ridley lecturers to Tasmania to meet with the Ridley Cohort. These will be held on Saturdays from 10:30am-3:30pm, in Hobart, with northern students able to attend online if they are unable to travel. Each visit will include a tutorial around a topic in the lecturer's area, plus a time for Q&A on any study questions. The lecturer will also visit a local church on the Sunday of that weekend for preaching and/or other events (these will be located in different regions of Tasmania)

- Sat 7 March – Dr Andrew Malone
- Sat 30 May – Dr Mike Bird
- Sat 22 August – Dr Tim Foster
- Sat 10 October – Dr Brian Rosner. Natalie Rosner will also be visiting and speaking at a women's event in Hobart on the same weekend.

The Cohort also includes an online group managed by Ridley College.

The Tasmanian Co-ordinator of the Cohort is Dr Bill Stewart, a former Ridley staff member, who is now Rector of New Town/Lenah Valley parish. He can be contacted at billstewart@netspace.net.au or 0418 517 903.

Members of the Cohort who are Ordination Candidates or in a vocational ministry role will also be invited to join a monthly Theological Reflection group in 2020 on the months that a Ridley lecturer is not visiting (Feb-Nov). Contact dmd@anglicantas.org.au

It is highly recommended that any online students with an interest in future Ordained or other vocational ministry attend the 4 Saturdays with the Ridley lecturers.
